Reviews and Other Information: M. Jean Pikes SHADOW LAKE is a true gem. . . Its a true romance, but delves into the deeper issues of family, divorce, betrayal, loss and suicide. Pikes writing has a magical way of drawing the reader in and holding them there until the final page is turned. The skillful plotting, lush descriptions, and charming cast of characters are enchanting. When turning that last page, readers will be left with wonderful sense of satisfaction and will eagerly look forward to the next in the series. Working Girl Reviews. . . a story about letting go of the past and moving on with life, leaves the reader with a keen awareness of how one persons actions can influence anothers lifeeither positively or negatively. Of course, the good feeling that comes when love wins against tremendous odds slips in and makes a rainy day turn bright and shiny. Long and Short ReviewsThis book has an author who is new to meM. Jean Pike. I loved her writing style and the ability she has to keep this reader mesmerized. The fact that Emma was fragile and emotionally struggled did not make her...
