Excerpt: .is in turn protected by a like amount of United States bonds deposited in the United States Treasury by the bank. Consequently, even if a national bank should fail, its circulating notes would be paid by the government. g) Bills payable secured by Liberty Bonds. Bills payable secured by Liberty Bonds are money which the bank itself has borrowed, either from some of its corresponding banks or from the Federal Reserve Bank-in all probability to accommodate customers who have engaged themselves to buy bonds. h) Deposits. Deposits are moneys which have been left with the bank by the public as a convenience and for safe-keeping. They are the real debts of the bank-debts which it is called upon by depositors to pay every day, in part. The item Deposits, however, is the item which every bank strives to increase, for it is upon these deposits that it makes its money. If they are large, and loans are safely made, the bank will prosper in proportion; hence, while they are debts, there is great strength in them. The experienced banker knows what proportion of them must be retained in cash in order to meet the daily demands from depositors, as explained elsewhere in this book. The items given above are all the debts the bank owes. PROTECTION OF DEPOSITORS AND STOCKHOLDERS 97. In case of a panic. But let us suppose that there is an unusual demand from depositors; let us suppose, even, that they...
