Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Gabrielle and Other Poems In this chamber Gabrielle de Latour died of joy. Here certainly she had watched at these windows, during ten whole years for the return of her beloved husband from a disastrous battle in the East, until against all expectation she beheld him crossing the court at last. From Gaston de Latour. In Summers withered long ago, Ere Ronsard to his Mistress sung - Mid level corn-fields of la Beauce Fair Gabrielle was young; High in her turret chamber lone Within the old chateau d Amour, Waiting her absent Lover-Lord, The valiant de Latour. The faded centuries roll back, Disclose her at her casement there, The sunlight on her listless hands And on her burnished hair; Close on her lips she holds the past, Her eyes lit by a vanished face - Red trees in flower neath crimson skies Hot as their last embrace! Before her tear-spent vision rides Her Love - a stern crusader grim About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more...
