Excerpt: .for this very day? Not for selfish ends, bear in mind; not that we ourselves may benefit, and reap the happiness so brought about, but for her; for she gives of self who can find joy in simple things, pleasure in small matters, and happiness in mere existence, and thus imparts to all about her new life and the joy of living. Mere association with this vigorous, buoyant, sunny girlhood whets and sharpens in us the power to enjoy. To grasp and retain, even as we see her grasping and retaining, all that is sweetest, best, and loveliest in life. To escape its stings and petty annoyances, because there is too much that is delightful in the world to leave room for its irritations. She smiles, and teaches others to smile for very sympathy. What are gnat-stings? Fan the gnats out of the window, and...
