*A fresh e book with an all new viewpoint. It is really simplistic but unexpected situations in the 50 % from the book. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

Turtleback Books, United States, 2015. Hardback. Book Condition: New. Bound for Schools Libraries ed.. 206 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. In this sequel to Amy Hill Hearth s funny and charming (Publishers Weekly) debut novel, Miss Dreamsville and the Collier County Women s Literary Society, the eponymous book club reunites one year later, in the late summer of 1964. Their mission: to fight a large development along the tidal river where member Robbie-Lee grew up and where his mother, Dolores Simpson, a former stripper turned alligator hunter, still lives in a fishing shack. The developer is Darryl Norwood, ex-husband of narrator Dora Witherspoon, who returns to Collier County to assist in the battle. An old land deed, the discovery that one of the key characters has been using a false name, and a dramatic court hearing are just a few of the highlights. Not to mention the reappearance of the Ghost of Seminole Joe. Just as Hearth s debut explored the ways we can find a sense of belonging in other people, her latest novel shows how closely tied each of us is to our sense of home--and the conflicts that can arise when our idea of that home becomes threatened. For Darryl, the river is a place ripe for development. For Dora, who s known as the Turtle Lady because she rescues Everglades snappers, it s a place that belongs to the critters. And for Dolores, former stripper, it s a place to hide from the world.
